Written statement for the 2019 ECOSOC High Level Segment (HLS) for NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC.

The theme for the 2019 session of the Economic and Social Council is “Empowering people and ensuring inclusiveness and equality”.

Current human management of human affairs and human life on this planet is not working. The deficiencies are many. There’s not enough teamwork and the team itself is woefully incomplete. These two factors are creating the unnecessary human crises’ of today and tomorrow. But they can be easily fixed. First, the team must be expanded to include youth as well. A one-hundred percent equal adult and youth team. Half of the world ‘s population under thirty years of age and the other half is over thirty. This totally equal adult/youth team much better represents today’s reality.

The U.N. and its Member States on its best day could only get us halfway there to advancing human life. That is because there is no youth equality. I do not speak of youth representation or empowerment; those are inadequate artificial pacifiers and not meals of real substance. I am speaking of youth equality on all subjects and matters.

Even if more adult women were in higher human affairs management positions, which no doubt would also be an improvement, it still would be missing the key youth ingredient and not let us reach our full potential.

With an equal adult/youth team, human advancement and human survival can take larger strides instead of the small and incremental steps society has taken so far. Yes, human civilization is advancing but not nearly as fast as we could be or should be. In some cases, our very human existence may be intertwined and dependent on our level of advancement.

This new team would operate equality but beginning first on an equal individual level. All individual voices in the team must be heard equally and all voices in the team must carry equal weight. That should seem like simple fairness since most issues affect all the people. Each equal voice, of equal weight, is heard at the same time, and acted upon in real time in the real world, continuously. This type of team is a more advanced level of democracy then what may exist today. The team makes the decisions on all matters regarding our common principles of peace, life, love, freedom, and equality, including the parameters I set forth above. This team better represents reality in another way for the truth is it is impossible for someone to speak for another person.

Humans are overwhelming good and moral. If not, the human race would probably have not made it this far already. This new team will make sure that the cream rises to the top every time. Most people are already peaceful so this new equal adult/youth team may be one of the best vehicles and models for regional and world peace, ever.

Teamwork is our answer to everything. There is nothing a team can't do, and you can't beat a unified team. We also believe that all youth are equal in meaning, importance, value, and worth. And that the same is true for all other humans who existed on this planet as well.

Thank you for this great honor and this great opportunity.

We are here to serve.

Our Mission: "World Peace Through Youth Peace"
